A success story of one of the candidates follows:

IOB-RSETI, Thanjavur
Name	Kamalavalli
Son/Daughter/Wife of	Dani Ranjith Kumar
Address	Xavier Complex, Pasipathi Koil, Kandiyur Main Road, Papanasam Thanjavur
Mob. No	9791962636
Course code and Name	Aari Embroidery Work
Batch no. and duration	173 / 21 Days (April 2016)
Funds (Own / Loan & source)	Rs.1,00,000/- from Canara bank, Ayyampettai branch
Average monthly income	Rs.20,000/-

Kamalavalli hails from a village called Pasupathi koil. Although she is a Hindu she fell in love with a Christian youth and married him in 2007 against the wishes of her family members and settled in Ayyampettai. After her marriage she converted from Hinduism to Christianity. This gave rise to a lot of problems and as is the practice in small towns and rural areas, her family disowned her and stayed away from her. Now she has two children, a daughter aged 8 years, and a son aged 6 years. When she was desperate in life she came to know about the free Aari course proposed to be conducted at IOB-RSETI, Thanjavur through a friend. As she already knew some basic tailoring by practice and experience and she thought Aari embroidery work will be helpful to increase her customer base and her income.

She completed the course successfully. At the end of the course she was thrilled to discover the hidden talent in her. Now she has her own shop with credit facility from Canara Bank and she is earning approximately Rs.20,000/- p.m. She is very grateful to IOB-RSETI, Thanjavur for the training in Aari work and for enabling her to earn a good income.
